

(Father) You Are All I Need

1. A vessel lay shipwrecked under the sea
Forgotten, invisible, splintered and torn
No one to remember its brave history
Or all of the colours it's worn

Until out of the darkness come glimmers of light
The bow and stern groan being moved by the might
Of one who remembers and seeks to repair
A proud mighty galleon from the depths of despair

- Ch. *Father, you're more than I could ever long for
You came down to Earth to befriend me
By restoring my soul, you're making me whole
And in majesty and might you defend me*

Father, you are all I need.

2. When existence was only shattered dreams
You showed me life again; you taught me to breathe
And when you led me to the promises there in your word
I not only listened, I heard

And out of the darkness came glimmers of light
When fuelled by your spirit, what a beautiful sight
Waves of your mercy empowering me
To believe in your love and know I am free

- Ch. *Father, you're more than I could ever long for
You came down to Earth to befriend me
By restoring my soul, you're making me whole
And in majesty and might you defend me*

*Lord, with you standing for me against me who can?
Your love is like a song on the breeze
It calls me to embrace the plight of my fellow man
And to fight every battle down on my knees*

- Ch. *Father, you're more than I could ever long for
You came down to Earth to befriend me
By restoring my soul, you're making me whole
And in majesty and might you defend me*

Father, you are all I need.
